

NCAA College Recruiting Seminars

Intelligent Recruiting, LLC

Recruiting seminars offered by a former NCAA Division I head coach and 25 year veteran in collegiate athletics. Learn the do's and don'ts of the college recruitment process including the NCAA rules, how to market yourself to colleges effectively, what role do parents play in the process, and understanding the business side of college athletics, including athletic scholarships. Seminars can be held at your school or club and are particularly relevant for 9th-11th graders.
